AS SUPPLIED TO H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES, H.R.H. THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH, H.I.M. THE LATE EMPEROR FREDERICK OF GERMANY.

The special feature of this Wine is that it is fermented juice of the grape solely, without the addition of candy, syrup, or liquenr of any kind. A DRY CHAMPAGNE to be palatable must be made of the finest raw material.-A SWEET CHAMPAGNE can be made of almost any material. The excessive quantity of sugar in the latter masks completely its original character. NATURAL CHAMPAGNE will agree with persons to whom the Sweetened Champagnes are injurious; it is a true stimulant to mind and body, rapid, volatile, transitory, and harmless. This Natural Champague is recommended as being really dry, not by meens of artificial additions, but because in it, the natural process of fermentation has been completed.

Of his life at Brentwood since his return wo. little is known. In July lest, however, Miss Kate Greenaway went to visit him, but her stay was brought to a sudden termination by an unfortunate occurrence. In company with Ma Ruskin she went out on the moor back of Brentwood to make some water-colour sketches. NEW YORK, 20th January. A Journal special from London says: Tipperary is the scene of the most extraordinary event that has yet marked the history of the land war in Ireland. Tipperary, the capital of the county, is being transplanted. The old town has fallen under the ban of the agent of the Ponsonby estate, Smith Barry, and the children of the men who built it up and were the cause of its prosperity are being forced at the point of the bayonet to quit their homes. Smith Barry long ago won his spurs as the "boss" Irish evictor, but he has met his match in the Tipperary boys. A few fields away from the old town a new Tipperary is springing up on friendly ground, and in less than a month Smith Barry will have nothing left him but a ruised wall and his constabulary. Excellent houses are being erected with all possible speed, under the superintendency and general direction of Alderman Meagher, M.P. At least two members of the Parliamentary party give wise counsel to the people, and show them the way in which Tipperary men can strike a blow without resorting either to the trampled, but it is not known if any were fatally | blunderbuss or pike. The struggle now going on in Tipperary is attracting great attention here and much sympathy is expressed with the people. TO TIMBUCTOO BY STRAMBOAT.
